What Has Happened To Christianity?

On every hand we find Catholics and Protestants accepting vital directions from Christianity's age old enemy, the Jew. Many Christian institutions have a Jew as Chairman of their Board.

The Jews are allowed to change Catholic and Protestant text books. They boast they have caused the Protestant churches to almost eliminate their writing on the crucifixion and are well on the way with the Catholic faith.

Jewish publications disclose they are making arrangements to bring pressure on the Ecumenical Council to be held in Rome to order the Gospels and Books in Catholic churches of the world changed to eliminate reference to the crucifixion.

Since 1950 the Jews have used every means possible to erase from Christian minds the fact that Jews alone set up Bolshevism (now Communism) in 1917 and spread it over the world.

The fact they own every large department store in the U.S. does not satisfy them. They must control our religion, our government, our social life. Eighty-two Jews are in top key spots in Washington. Has not Christianity learned anything after two thousand years? Can you imagine Jews allowing a Christian Minister to direct their religious activities?

the Anti-Defamation League, we are now in almost daily consultation. This Department makes significant use of the Committee's (AJC) resources for material and information which it channels through 2,500,000 Protestant instructors to 27 million Sunday School students."

Annual Report for 1953, page 34:

"Last summer the Women's Division of the Methodist Church sensed alarming signs of disaffection for UNESCO and UN among its 1,888,000 members and sought our aid in countering the inroads being made upon their membership by the Minute Women, a new but effective and rabidly isolationist organization which was also invading other church organizations. Accordingly, YOU HOLD THE KEY TO HUMAN RIGHTS, an 82 page guide to social action based on the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, was published in June 1952 under the imprint of the Methodist group. Written and prepared by American Jewish Committee staff members, this is the second such pamphlet on the same subject prepared for the same organization."

MILITARY AND ECONOMIC DISARMAMENT DEMANDED

We call as our first witness, Dr. Robert Morris, formerly General Counsel for the Senate Internal Security Committee, later President of the University of Dallas, currently devoting his time in an effort to awaken Americans before it is too late to save what's left of the Republic. In a report titled "The Trap Is Set," Dr. Morris writes:

This week's relaxation on the part of our negotiators in their demand for inspection, preparatory to new disarmament discussions with the Soviets, puts in focus our posture on the world scene today.

We are pleading with the Communists to accept our "disarmament plan" which calls for the dissolution of our magnificent military establishment in three stages and the transfer of all military power to "U.N. Peace Force." We are making concession after concession to have them accept our proposals.

This is not a disarmament at all. It is a plan for merger with our enemies. It is the creation of a world army possessing all the weapons in the world in which our influence would be an insignificant minority. In this merger the entire west world would be a shrinking minority. Left-leaning neutrals such as Sukarno, Krishna Menon and Souvanna Phouma and the growing Soviet bloc would rule this army, and we would be subject to this combine.

With their rule, free enterprise, our religious and common law heritage, our Constitution, our Bill of Rights, would be diluted beyond recognition.

Thus far the Soviets have not agreed to our plan. I have read some of their propaganda wherein they are urging their people here to support the plan with Red China included in a U.N. which they would like to see "evolve" further.

We are making concessions in our demands for inspections. Every time we meet, it seems we lower the safeguards. We have waived the necessity of an inventory at the initiation of the disarmament process.

The Rostow Report which is being concealed from the American people, reflects this same policy. More and more of our planners and ex-planners will tell you that merger with the Soviets is our policy today.

But even worse is our posture wherein we are moving all over the world, helping

"... some of the significant advances we have been able to make during the years past and through 1950, in achieving the elimination of hostile references from Christian textbooks and lesson books, particularly relating to the Crucifixion Story and to the teaching of modern Judaism. Largely due to our efforts, we can report to you that 85% of the Protestant textbooks are today free of disparaging references to the Jew. Similar, though not quite as extensive results have been achieved among Catholics. Text material used in Catholic parochial and Sunday Schools are being studied by the Catholic Bible Ass'n. Catholic University has become a workshop for the development of material seeking more properly to interpret Judaism as a religion to Catholic teachers and religious leaders. In 1950, however, we shifted our emphasis somewhat... to leadership, education and teacher training, particularly in the Protestant field... Arrangements have been completed with the newly created Division of Christian Education of the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES, whereby the American Jewish Committee and the Anti-Defamation League will jointly have an unprecedented opportunity to aid in the preparation of lesson materials, study guides and visual aids for educational programs sponsored by the Protestant Organizations."

Freedom Of The Press

THE BUSINESS OF THE N. Y. JOURNALIST

John Swinton, editor of the New York Tribune, to the New York Press Assn. on Feb. 26, 1936 stated:

"There is no such thing as an independent press in America, unless it is in the country towns. You know it, and I know it.

"There is not one of you who dares express an honest opinion. If you express an honest opinion, you know beforehand, it would never appear in print.

"I am paid $150.00 a week for keeping my honest opinion out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar salaries for doing similar things. If I should permit honest opinions to be printed in one issue of my paper, like Othello, before twenty-four hours, my occupation would be gone.

"The business of the New York journalists is to destroy the truth, to lie outright, to pervert, to vilify, to faun at the feet of Mammon; to sell his race and his country for his daily bread.

"We are tools and vessels of rich men behind the scenes.

"We are intellectual prostitutes."

This vital and sacred element in U. S., is in ever-lasting danger—since the Kennedy Family took over in Washington. There is extensive freedom of the press, where it aids the so-called Kennedy Administration, which is directed by Jews in all key spots—such as policy-making, both domestic and foreign. (We are waiting for some reputable person to challenge us on this).

On Monday August 13th, Jack Kennedy demonstrated his ideas of freedom. For days ahead it had been ballyhooed that he was going to have an important announcement on every TV and Radio hook-up in the U. S., about a tax cut. It turned out to be 90% campaign propaganda, and the same statement he had made several times before: a tax cut in January, 1963. He said timing was of the essence, and we agree.

In the coming November election, the gullible voter will be told he better elect certain candidates if he wants a tax cut. Kennedy will need these "YES" men candidates because the present session of Congress has given Kennedy the most severe rebuke, as far as legislation is concerned, ever suffered by any president in history.

The Kennedys have been ruthless in suppressing unfavorable news. Walter Winchell, on TV station KFBM in San Diego, stated that the Kennedys threatened the Hearst papers with a suit regarding a merger in California, unless they stopped their writers from criticizing the Kennedys. Winchell said this was after Wm. Randolph Hearst, Jr., had a one hour and twenty minute meeting with President Kennedy, at which he was told by the President to go see his kid brother, not the Attorney General of the United States, but 'my kid brother.' According to Winchell, Robert Kennedy then gave the ultimatum.

Winchell also says that some one in the Department of Justice told Henry Luce, editor of Time and Life: "You have five TV Stations, haven't you, Mr. Luce? Go ahead and start something!" Other writers have been called into the White House to receive a calling down for writing unfavorable articles.

Westbrook Pegler, with Hearst publications for eighteen years, has broken with Hearst papers, and his contract has been cancelled. Pegler stated: "Much of our daily press is now under coercion, snarling and menacing. I had a recent alarming experience in the Hearst organization. I received insolent, arrogant warnings from King Features (a subsidiary of Hearst) that nothing unfavorable to the Kennedy administration or offensive to any member of the Kennedy family, will be allowed out of New York, where the censors sit." During 1962, twelve complete columns of Peglers were killed by King Features so that the 140 newspapers did not receive them.

Ninety-nine percent of the newspapers are organized to make money and so must walk a tight wire as far as facts are concerned. To incur the ill will of the advertisers will close them up. They dared not print the truth, before or after World War II. They dare not print the truth about the Marxist power in Washington now.

Newspapers dare not tell the facts about a thousand vital questions, concerning which the public are hungry for answers. That's where Common Sense comes in, but we need the cooperation of alert citizens to build a stronger, more frequent publication.

World Government Planners

to create the left-leaning governments that Khrushchev will need to give him assured control of the new ruling body.

People keep wondering why, for instance, we are throttling courageous little anti-communist Greece while we fatten up communist Yugoslavia, our foresworn enemy. It does not make sense to many that we are cutting down in assistance to Free China while we worked affirmatively to bring Soviet Outer Mongolia into the U. N. Many still cannot understand why we pressured Nosavan in Laos to give Khrushchev his Troika Government in that little country that is the hub of Southeast Asia.

During this past week we exerted our influence to give Khrushchev's front runner in Indonesia, Sukarno, a complete victory in Dutch New Guinea. We are moving for economic sanctions or worse against Moise Tshombe who is holding out against the Troika government we are forcing on the Congolese people. We are denigrating the leaders of Spain, of West Germany, of Portugal, we conspicuously deny an opportunity to the head of beleaguered Guatemala to visit this country while we prostrate ourselves in welcoming the pro-Soviet dictator of Ghana. We seem to be knocking down all of Khrushchev's enemies for him.

This makes sense only on the theory that we are making the prospect of merger more palatable to Khrushchev.

But meanwhile the American people are being brainwashed by our planners that communism is "mellowing." We are told that it is no longer a threat because it is not "monolithic" but "polycentric." When you analyse the evidence you find that most of it comes from communist handouts, and independent checks show communism more integrated than ever before—and more intransigent.

I find this issue—the eclipse of our heritage through merger with our enemies—so predominant over all others that it calls for the ultimate in emphasis. People must be told what the planners are up to. I am sure that if they knew, their reactions would be wholesome and effective.

(End of Quotation.)

If you ask the Planners why they must make new concessions at every new meeting at every new international bargaining table, they will doubtless come out with that stock reply:

"It is better to bargain than to risk the threat of all-out nuclear war."

Suppose we concede—for the sake of argument—that we may be dead if we don't go Red; just how serious is the situation? We like the answer sent by Constantine Brown from Rome, because he uses their (the Planners') figures for his report:

The estimate of some of President Kennedy's advisers that 8 million Americans would die in a nuclear war means that our chance of survival would be a little more than 1 out of 2. The early Virginia settlers who came to America had a survival ratio far less than that.

Only 1 out of 10 survived the first 3 years in America. When the Mayflower touched our shores in 1620, the passengers had better luck. Fifty of the 100 aboard survived the first year.

But this ratio did not frighten the settlers whose desire for freedom was greater than their love of life. Between 1630 and 1640 some 20,000 of them dared to come to the land of the free.

And life for these courageous people was difficult. In a report of food scarcity, Isaac Backus later wrote, "Quoth one, 'My husband has traveled as far as Plymouth . . . and has with great toil brought a little corn home, and, before that is spent, the Lord will assuredly provide.'"

But with the full knowledge of the hardships to be endured, the American settlers make their irrevocable decisions. John Winthrop, Governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, wrote:

"God hath provided this place to be a refuge for many whom He means to save out of the general calamity, and seeing the church hath no place left to fly but into the wilderness, what better work can there be, than to go?"

Can the courage of these men and women, centuries dead, to make fateful decisions inspire us today? Dare we decide to fight for our Nation if need be? Have we the wisdom to make the best decision with faith that God will save many "out of this general calamity"?

(End of Quotation.)

Of course, the Planners who now make the decisions in our name, have long ceased to make any decisions in God's Name. He is ruled out of the council halls of the mighty; it is a violation of civil rights to mention His name in a gathering of children in a publicly owned building such as a New York schoolhouse. And it is nothing short of anti-social bigotry to mention the Name of His only begotten Son in a mixed gathering.

How can we have the courage of our fathers if we have turned our backs on the God of our fathers?

ECONOMIC MERGER, TOO

While the Planners are taking all the necessary steps to effect political and military merger with our enemies; even more frantic is their desire to complete economic union with the nations of Western Europe—a merger which is to bring about a new United States tentatively being called Euramerica (the United States of Europe indissolubly federated with the United States of America—all so very attractively packaged that the “mellowing” communist countries will be eager to merge).

Vital as a first step in this new Regional World Government development is passage of the Kennedy Trade Expansion Bill (which already has passed the House, and may have passed the Senate even as you read this—the Planners have been waiting for the “exactly right moment” when opposition will be at the lowest possible point numerically, before bringing the measure to the floor for debate).

Speaking of the domestic hardships which this bill will bring (aside from its world government intent), Senator Strom Thurmond reports the following under date of August 13, 1962:

The Senate will soon act on the Trade Expansion Bill, which President Kennedy has described as “the most important piece of legislation before the country this year.” As approved by the House, the bill gives the greatest delegation of power ever provided any President in regulating foreign commerce and trade. This is a power specifically granted to the Congress under the Constitution.

Under the bill, the President could eliminate tariffs on some commodities and slash others up to 50%, not just on a commodity by commodity basis, but on broad categories of goods. He has frankly told the American public that in exercising this power some domestic industries will be closed and many employees left jobless.

To compensate for the damage which domestic industries and employees will suffer, the President has proposed that adjustment assistance (federal subsidies) be provided, after certain criteria are met, to assist the industries to be converted and the employees to be retrained for other work. The adjustment assistance, which would give the Executive Branch increased control over American industry, would not be automatically provided. In fact, to get these subsidies for his company and employees, the injured manufacturer would have to prove damage to the entire industry. The definition of what constitutes an industry is very vague in the legislation.

If he should win this point, the manufacturer gets a certificate and then must apply to the Secretary of Commerce for the subsidy. If the manufacturer then proves his case before the Secretary, he must qualify for a loan, which must be secured. In addition, he must prove that his company can, in a new venture, become a sound factor in our economy. If he gets the loan, the manufacturer must submit to bureaucratic domination and control of his business policies, as do government contractors who are today being told whom they can hire and fire when they accept government contracts.

Trade is an important item in our national life. We should seek more ways to increase trade with foreign countries. Any trade agreements, however, should be truly reciprocal, and not just constitute concessions by the U.S.—as has been the case on too many occasions—causing increased centralization of power in the Executive, increased federal costs, and increased regulation and control over American industries and employees. The original trade bill passed in 1934 was designed to help—not hurt—American industries and employees, according to its author, the late Cordell Hull. Also, it was never intended to be used as an instrument of foreign policy, as is being done today.

The Administration's plan to provide international agreements to protect the domestic cotton textile industry from low-wage imports is not working. I told the

RABBIS DIRECT CATHOLIC THINKING

Rabbi Marc C. Tanenbaum of New York, Director of Inter-religious Affairs of the American Jewish Committee has been named consultant to the Religious Education Resources Center at Marygrove College, Monroe, Michigan. This center is a main source for Catholic religious educational material. Rabbi Tanenbaum will speak at the convention of the National Catholic Social Action Conference to be held in Pittsburgh, August 23rd.

H. WORK WITH THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC WELFARE CONFERENCE:

This will include furnishing of factual information to the Press Department; enlisting the support of the Social Action Department in various issues as they arise; and offering the Education and Youth Departments assistance with material on Jews and Judaism as we have done in the past.

I. WORK WITH EDUCATIONAL BODIES:

We will continue our efforts with the Educational Policies Commission of the National Commission of the National Education Association; and with the American Council on Education, to assure careful study of the proposal that the public schools teach about religion.

III. NEW PROJECTS IN 1954 WITHIN 1953 BUDGET LIMITATIONS.

A. WORK IN THE CATHOLIC TEXTBOOK FIELD:

New efforts will be made during the coming year to seek the publication of revised editions of Catholic textbooks through the good offices of the Catholic Biblical Assn. In addition, we will help the Committee on Citizenship of the Catholic University of America in the preparation of Texts on Jews and Judaism and articles for youth magazines.

Annual Report of AJC, 1953 page 122:

4. Having responsible leaders speak for or endorse causes of concern to the American Jewish Committee and condemn those groups or individuals who engage in activities which the American Jewish Committee considers inimical to the best interests of the community, state and nation.

We frequently supply speeches or speech material to officials of the Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Content covers civil rights and civil liberties; public school issues; the current rise of Nazism in Germany; the danger of attempts to divide our population on the basis of race, creed or color; the need of stronger community service activities; the importance of UN efforts to strengthen human rights.

We have met with fairly good success in the use of this material by leaders. Practically all of the addresses delivered by the National Chaplain of the Legion during 1950-1 were supplied by us, for which he expressed appreciation. Many of our speeches were used in national broadcasts by the Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and those not thus used were printed and circulated to departments and posts of the VFW in clip-sheet form.

Occasionally we are able to obtain endorsement by leaders of matters in which the American Jewish Committee manifests a particular interest—such as the restitution laws in Germany promulgated by General Clay.

Knowing of our interest in liberalization of the immigration laws, we were informed, by a prominent Legionnaire, of a move to have the 1951 convention endorse the McCarran Act in toto. Thereupon, the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the American Jewish Committee and the Director of this Division met with the persons involved and agreed on plans which ultimately prevented endorsement.

PUBLIC SCHOOL PRAYER

The American Examiner, “America's largest independent Jewish weekly,” of Aug. 2nd, 1962 had this to say:

“The decision of the Supreme Court was, both in logic and in tradition, a magnificently right one. It is to be hoped now that the sense and decency of the American people will keep an obdurate, arrogant man from making a shambles of our Law.”

This position was indorsed also by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and The Central Conference of American Rabbis in a joint statement.

Senate this on August 3, when I cited government statistics to show that more cotton textile imports have flooded into this country under short-term import agreement than during any previous year. Later, textile manufacturers and union officials met with Members of the House and Senate and the President's legislative assistant, Larry O'Brien, on August 8, to warn that the agreements are not working, and that the textile industry is merely getting promises and no action on its administrative relief actions now pending before the Tariff Commission and the Office of Emergency Planning.

On August 9, former Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens, whose company owns 55 textile plants—many of which are in South Carolina—told the Senate Finance Committee that his company is being forced to cut production schedules in 8 plants (3 in South Carolina), curtailing 4,500 jobs. This he cited to be in direct contrast with Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges' statement of August 7 informing the President that everything was "rosy" in the domestic textile industry.

This trade legislation concerns me very much, because various segments of domestic industry are being "bought off" with promises of assistance, while the legislation containing the possible seeds of their destruction is being engineered through the Congress with little amendment. For this reason I have joined in sponsoring 37 amendments which could greatly improve the bill, by providing congressional guidelines and restrictions on provisions giving virtually unlimited power to the President. In turn he will be delegating most of this authority to a State Department dedicated to the goal of using our money to build up low-wage textile and other industrial competition in underdeveloped countries.

(End of Report.)

We submit that the disarmament plan, as so well explained by Robert Morris, and the trade expansion bill, as dealt with by Senator Thurmond, are corelated steps of a master plan to create world government—and during the Kennedy Administration if at all possible!

On the political and military front, every act of our State and Defense Departments is an act designed to placate our enemies, with the final intent of effecting a complete merger of all the nations of the world. But this final "merger" must await certain developments; the first of which is the total merger of Western Europe and the United States.

And the Kennedy Trade Expansion Bill is the first movement in the direction of that first step.

For those who can wade through the semantics and dialectics and get at the real truth behind words that are meant to confuse; there is a new book by one Joseph Kraft which tells the whole story. Kraft was one of Kennedy's ghost writers during the latter's 1960 campaign. He is a hireling writer for the Council on Foreign Relations and is on a first name basis with most of the officials in the Kennedy Administration.

Kraft titles his book "The Grand Design." And he points out that the Trade Expansion Act is to be a means of placating both industry and labor until such time as both are under the tight and total control of the Executive Branch of our government. When that complete control has been accomplished, then complete integration into an "Atlantic Partnership" will follow as night must follow day. And once the "Atlantic Partnership" is effected, the people and the Congress will be helpless to resist the future steps towards total socialist world government.

IS THIS NOT PROOF?!! Warren Studies Talmudic Law Here

Chief Justice Earl Warren with Dr. Louis Finkelstein, chancellor, on arrival at Jewish Theological Seminary.

Chief Justice Earl Warren enrolled yesterday for a short course of instruction in judicial decision-making processes more than 2,000 years old. The head of the nation's highest tribunal, who has made some historic decisions of his own, sat down with scholars of the Jewish Theological Seminary of American for three days of discussions of Jewish law and its relevance to contemporary legal problems. Dr. Louis Finkelstein, chancellor of the seminary at Broadway and 122d Street, said he had long been acquainted with Mr. Warren. He disclosed that the Chief Justice had expressed a desire to learn something of Jewish legal tradition with its guiding emphasis on moral law.

"It is unusual in any country for a Chief Justice to sit down with a group of scholars," he said.

"We desire to express our respect and reverence for him as a person, and for the legal system at the head of which he stands, by sharing with him our most treasured possession—the Talmud and its teaching."

The Chief Justice donned a black skull cap to attend Sabbath Eve services at the seminary in deference to the Orthodox and Conservative Jewish tradition of keeping the head covered in houses of worship.

Mr. Warren will participate this afternoon and tomorrow in discussions of the Talmud, containing the code of Jewish ecclesiastical law, called the Mishnah, and its interpretation.

At the close of the session Mr. Warren observed that the American Constitutional protection "is, perhaps, not as sacred as in ancient times."

Mr. Warren wrote the majority opinion outlawing segregation in public schools.

The above published Sept. 14, 1957.

Chief Justice Warren goes to Israel for more instructions on law

The Southern Jewish Weekly, July 6th, 1962, reports that Dr. Louis Finkelstein announced that Earl Warren would meet him in Israel on July 8th, for a week's study of Jewish traditional law. Mr. Warren made the trip under the auspices of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America and was accompanied by Ben Swig, millionaire San Francisco Jew.

Drew Pearson revealed in his column that he had a meeting in Yugoslavia with Tito, when Mrs. Eugene Meyer(☆), owner of the communist-aiding Washington Post was present, and also EARL WARREN AND HIS WIFE, ARRIVING FROM ISRAEL—and Clayton Fritchey, confidential assistant to Adlai Stevenson. They all enjoyed a good time in the wine cellar after the meeting.

It is interesting to note the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, who wrote the 1954 Integration decision, and was behind the law to outlaw prayers in public schools, visiting with the Communist head of Yugoslavia. Our ambassador to the U. N., also was represented. Also interesting is the fact that the American Jewish Committee boasts to their members, in their Yearbook, that they forced the Integration decision thru the Supreme Court; and that all the Jewish publications endorsed the Supreme Court decision abolishing prayer in public schools.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, who interprets the law for 180 million people, gets his direction from THREE PERCENT of the population—the JEWS!
